

Alaska Community Action on Toxics,
 Steller Secondary School,
 Alaska Women's Environmental Network, and Alaska Youth for Environmental Action
 Invite You to Attend:

THE 6TH ANNUAL

RACHEL CARSON CELEBRATION

Saturday, Rain or Shine

FREE Workshops 10am - 4pm ~ May 29th

Join Festivities at Steller School's Community Peace Garden

Directions: Corner of Blueberry and 27th Ave, off of Northern Lights

- 10 am Healthy Lawns Without Chemicals with Rocco Moschetti, IPM of Alaska
- 11-2pm Organic Gardening with Ellen Vande Visse, Good Earth Garden School
A Donation is Suggested for this 3-hour Workshop. Please Call 222-7714 to Register.
- 11 am Tree Care Without Insecticides with Rocco Moschetti, IPM of Alaska
- Noon Picnic Lunch and Organic Carrot Birthday Cake Provided
- 1:00 Acting Locally: Doing Rachel's Work in Alaska with ACAT
Annual Rachel Carson Awards Announced ~ Statewide Nominations Now Being Accepted
- 2:00 Composting and Compost Tea
- 3:00 Presentations by Steller Students (Companion Planting, Invasive Plants, and Landscaping for Wildlife)

Bring Soil Samples from Your Garden
 Soil Testing Will Be Available Throughout the Day

Fun Bugs and Soil Life Activities for Children

Garden Signs For Sale

To volunteer, support, or for further information, please contact:

Alaska Community Action on Toxics (ACAT)
 Phone 222-7714 info@akaction.net

Steller Secondary School
 Phone 742-4950 (Helen)

Don't
 Miss

7pm MONDAY
 MAY 17th

FREE FILM at the Anchorage Museum of History and Art
 "THE SILENT SPRING OF RACHEL CARSON"
 This PBS Documentary will be followed by Community Readings of Rachel Carson