Midtown Garden Depot is open! Lots of free garden supplies to share. We also accept donations of materials anytime. Gate is unlocked, come by at your convenience. 2930 Cheechako Street. Follow the link to the Midtown Garden Depot webpage. Coordinated by Alaska Community Action on Toxics.

Are you or someone in your village interested in starting a community garden? AK Village Initiatives Ag-in-a-Box program is offering free hands-on subsistence agriculture workshops this summer. This is a free on-site course — our team will come to your village. All you need to supply is interest, excitement, and people. Reach out to AVI for more info.

*The 2024 NACD PAC/SW Joint Region Meeting is tentatively scheduled for September 11th through 13th, 2024 in Anchorage Alaska – themed Living with the Land from Ground to Glacier: A Journey of Discovery. <https://nacd.akvillage.org/>

Share Waste is a handy website for seeing where to drop off food waste to be used by neighbors in personal compost piles, fed to flocks, and used at community gardens. This isn't a 'new' website, but it might be new to you! In my experience, the more people using Share Waste (giving and receiving), the better it will work - <https://sharewaste.com/>

Yarducopia (a program of Alaska Community Action on Toxics) is accepting signups for gardeners looking for growing space, landowners offering space, and volunteers offering time to help make it all happen. Reach out to Yarducopia at garden@akaction.org or their website.

Alaska Master Gardeners Anchorage and the Alaska School Garden Network compile a list of public garden projects and volunteer opportunities – you can view it here.
